Welcome Message

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is a matter of proud privilege and great pleasure for us to organize the prestigious event, NAILSCON 2023 Annual Conference of National Association of Interlocking Surgeons, scheduled to be held on 22nd - 24th September, 2023 at Rajgir International Convention Centre, Rajgir.

Rajgir had served as a capital city for the kingdom of Magadha for nearly 500 years, including the time of Buddha's life. The city became sacred to the devotees of Buddhism and Jainism; Gautma Buddha performed miracles there, as well as preached some of his most famous sermons there. After Buddha's nirvana, his disciples held their first Buddhist Council in the cave of Saptarni. In a sense, Rajgir could be considered the beginning of the Buddhist movement, coming after the nirvana of Buddha. Mahavira, a key figure in Jainism, spent fourteen years in Rajgir.

We the Organising Committee personally looking forward to welcoming you and your family in this auspicious gathering wherein you can visit the Vishwa Shanti Stupa, The Japanese Temple in Rajgir, The Glass Bridge, Bimbisara Jail, Sariputra Stupa, Jal Mandir Pawapuri, Jarasandh ka Akhara.

The Three days conference will cater workshop orations plenary sessions, key note addresses, Guest Lectures, Panel discussion, Debate, Do's and Don'ts in practice. It is a golden opportunity to gather the wisdom and interact with learned faculty of National repute.

Kindly block your dates now, to relish this academic feast, valuable back home messages, cultural bonanza and warm memories.

We look forward to welcoming you in Rajgir.

Regards,

Attractions

VISHWA SHANTI STUPA

Vishwa Shanti Stupa, also called the Peace Pagoda. It is located at the highest point of Ratnagiri hill, at an altitude of 400 m in Rajgir, qualifying its serene charm as divine. Built completely with marble, Stupa comprises four golden statues of Lord Buddha with each representing his life periods of birth, enlightenment, preaching and death. There is a ropeway which helps the tourists reach Vishwa Shanti Stupa a top Ratnagiri hill. The other way to reach this "Stupa" is a serpentine staircase.

ROPEWAY AT RAJGIR

Bihar's only ropeway is said to be the oldest in the country. It is a single-person ropeway that runs at the top of Ratnagiri Hill. It leads to the Vishwa Shanti Stupa (Peace Pagoda), Makhdoom Kund and monasteries built by Japanese devotees of the Buddha on top of the Ratnagiri Hills.

BIMBISARA JAIL

Bimbisara Jail is named after the great king of Ancient History Bimbisara. He established the Haryanka dynasty and laid the foundations of Magadha with the fortification of a village, which later became the city of Pataliputra. Bimbisara Jail offers a beautiful view of Gridhakutta Hill as well as the Japanese Pagoda. He was a staunch disciple of Lord Gautam Buddha who was imprisoned by his son Ajatshatru. It is said his son asked him to choose an option for his imprisonment and he choose a spot from where he could see Lord Buddha.

JAL MANDIR PAWAPURI

The Jal Mandir meaning Water Temple, also known as Apapuri, in Pawapuri, meaning a town without sins, in the Indian state of Bihar, is a highly revered temple dedicated to Lord Mahavira, the 24th Thirthankara (religious preacher of Jainism) and founder of Jain religion, which marks the place of his cremation. Mahavira attained Nirvana (salvation) in Pawapuri in 528 BC.
